

Pancreatic Cancer and Chronic Pancreatitis

Academic Meeting

Date: 4th December 6:30-9:30pm

Venue: The Education Centre, Princess Royal University Hospital, King's College Hospital NHS Trust, Farnborough, Orpington- BR6 8ND

Aims:

- To improve the early detection of pancreatic disease and cancer in primary care
- To increase understanding of the needs of patients with pancreatic cancer and chronic pancreatitis in primary care and interface with secondary care

Objectives:

1. To know the risk factors and early investigations for chronic pancreatitis
2. To be able to identify patients at risk of pancreatic cancer
3. To know how pancreatic cancer and chronic pancreatitis is currently managed in order to support patients through these illnesses

Programme:

6:00 - 7:00pm Registration and Dinner

7:00 - 7:05pm Welcome and Introduction
Dr. Mayur Kumar. Consultant Gastroenterologist, KCL

7:05 - 7:45pm Pancreatic Cancer -A patient's journey
Mrs. Ali Stunt. Founder and CEO of Pancreatic Cancer Action

7:45 - 8:15pm Surgical Management of Pancreatic Cancer
Mr. Parthi Srinivasan, Consultant HPB Surgeon, KCL

8:15 - 8:45pm Chronic Pancreatitis - Diagnosis and Management
Dr. Mayur Kumar. Consultant Gastroenterologist, KCL

08:45-9:00pm Role of Dietetics in Chronic Pancreatitis and Pancreatic Cancer
Ms. Keynes Chan, MacMillan Dietitian and Lead, PRUH

09:00 - 9:30pm HPB Cancer pathway - comments and discussion
Dr. Mayur Kumar; Dr. Jackie Tavabie – Involve all