The different types of gift you could leave:

A share of your estate

Once you have provided for your loved ones, you can leave a gift to Pancreatic Cancer Action. It can be any percentage you like and as this gift is a proportion of your estate it keeps in line with inflation.

A fixed sum of money

Also known as a pecuniary gift, this is a gift of a specific amount of money. If you decided to leave this type of gift it is worth reviewing it from time to time as inflation can reduce its value.

Make or update your Will for free

We recognise that writing or amending a Will can involve time and cost – something that many people are short of nowadays. That's why Pancreatic Cancer Action have teamed up with the National Free Wills Network; a service that offers our supporters a chance to make or update their Will free of charge.

Leave a lasting legacy

Your legacy will help future generations survive pancreatic cancer

As the UK's fifth biggest cause of cancer death, we know that pancreatic cancer desperately needs more funding and more awareness. Pancreatic Cancer Action's vision is a day where more people survive pancreatic cancer but we can't do this alone. We need your help.

Hearing daily of more people diagnosed late and dying from pancreatic cancer is a powerful reminder of why our work is necessary and your support is so vital.

By leaving us a gift in your Will, you will be contributing to our work, enabling us to educate medical professionals and the public about the signs and symptoms of pancreatic cancer, provide patient information and fund research into early diagnostic tests.

Although it might seem a little daunting at first, your Will is the only way to ensure your money, assets and belongings are distributed according to your wishes. We are humbled by any gift left to Pancreatic Cancer Action in a Will, large or small.

We understand that family and friends come first, so once you have taken care of your loved ones, please consider leaving a gift that will make a real and lasting difference to pancreatic cancer. Thank you for all your support.

What your legacy will fund:

How your support helps.

£20

Helps us fund a medical researcher for 1 hour

£50

£5,000

Could help us develop new e-learning modules for medical professionals

£10,000

Could help fund a large health professional study day across the country

£40,000

Could help fund a public national symptom awareness campaign

Your questions answered

What is a legacy?

A legacy is a gift of money, property or a valued possession that you leave to family, friends and the causes you hold dear.

When should I update my Will?

Your Will may reflect major changes in your life such as marriage, bereavement, divorce or the birth of children or grandchildren.

How can I update my Will?

If you wish to make major revisions to your Will, your solicitor may have to alter your Will. If the changes are relatively simple, such as the addition of a charitable bequest, you need only add a codicil, a legally binding document that details amendments to your Will.

How can I leave a legacy to Pancreatic Cancer Action?

If you are writing a new Will, you need only give your solicitor the charity's details including our exact name, address and registered charity number. If you want to add a charitable bequest to an existing Will, simply complete a codicil (available via our website) and present it to our solicitor.

Can I leave a legacy to fund a specific project?

We are more than happy for you to leave a legacy to fund an area of our work. Our areas of work are in; research, public awareness, medical education and patient information. Please contact lucy@panact.org to discuss any requirement you might have.

Do I need to think about inheritance tax?

There is no tax payable on a gift left to charity in your Will. It could also reduce the total amount of your estate that may be liable for inheritance tax.
